NOT YOUR ORDINARY DESIGN COMPANY

Manga Street is not your ordinary design company with minimalistic lines and low-key colors. From the first draft on paper, the founders knew the soul of the company was going to be a combination of quirkiness and softness with a big splash of vigorous colors that is easily distinctive.

SUSTAINABLE DESIGN

Manga Street originates from Denmark and was founded by industrial designer Julie Storm Christensen and Kurt Christensen in 2003. The creative part of the company's soul is Julie Storm, who graduated from The Danish Design School and has won numerous design awards especially by incorporating sustainable design. Her personal line can be recognized by the double-curved line, which draw parallels to Manga Streets products.

Julie Storm's inspiration for the multi-purposeful planters, poufs, seats and tables is Manga comics. By combining peculiarity with the playful and colorful universe that stems from Manga comics, it refers to a person's inner child. That's why Manga Streets target market is national as well as international companies, that wants a practical and colorful solution added to your urban space inventory.

Our distributors are from all around the world and each distributor is as unique as our products can be. Manga Streets products can be adapted to your unique environment and customer segment by selecting specific colorways, combinations and lightning.

With peace of mind Manga Streets sustainable solutions will definitely adorn any urban space.
